

University of Queensland Symposium

The Future of Norm Studies Research

Friday July 20th 2018. 9am start.

Location. Room 537, Building 39A. UQ.

Welcome comments (9:15-9:30).

Future Directions in Norm Research. Chair, Christian Reus-Smit (9:30 – 11:00).

- Antje Wiener, 'The Normativity-Practice Nexus: Why Practice Matters for the Future of Norms Studies'
- Phil Orchard, 'Domestic Contestation and Implementation: A Path Forward for Norm Studies'
- Sarah Percy, 'Norm Death, Norm Change, and Norm Complexity'
- Adrian Gallagher, 'The role of expectations in norm dynamics'

Agency in Norm Studies. Chair, Alex Bellamy. (11:00 – 12:30).

- Emily Paddon Rhoads' 'A return to virtue: ethical judgment and norm implementation in war' (Skype)
- Amitav Acharya, 'The End of Norms? Rethinking Ideas & Agency in a Multiplex World'
- Maria Rost Rublee, 'Deconstructing Norm Entrepreneurs'
- Rebecca Shaw, 'Private military and security companies: private actors, norm entrepreneurship, and regulation'

- Lunch (12:30 – 1:30).

Norms in Practice. Chair, Blagovesta Tacheva (1:30 – 3:00).

- Susan Park, 'The World Bank Inspection Panel: A Norm Undermined?'
- Luke Glanville, 'The limits and possibilities of norms in Kant's playroom'
- Jacinta O'Hagan, 'Everything old is new again: Studying norm complexity and contestation in humanitarianism'
- Shannon Zimmerman, 'Norms as silencers: the dangers of 'appropriate' behaviour'

- Tea/Coffee (3:00 – 3.30).

Grounding Norms? Chair, Sarah Percy (3:30 – 5:00)

- Jason Ralph, 'From meanings in use to useful meanings. Pragmatic constructivist ethics and norm research'. (Skype).
- Brooke Ackerly, 'Norms, Normativity, and Grounded Normative Theory'
- Daniel Bray, 'Pragmatism and the Warranted Assertability of Norms'
- Wes Widmaier, 'Norm Repression: From Uncertainty to Misplaced Certainty Across the Norm Life Cycle - The Breakdown of Shared Economic Responsibility and Lessons for the Responsibility to Protect'?

Format. If everyone speaks for 12-15 mins that leaves 30 minutes for question and answers.